Cast & Cre Bios

Steven Anderson (Stage Manager) is a third year Film and Performing Arts student at UAF with a concentration in Theatre, and minors in Film and Vocal Performance. Steven has appeared as an actor in Anchorage Community Theatre's production of Young Jane Eyre as John Reed, and UAF's production of Pride and Prejudice as Mr. Collins. You may have seen him perform with the Choir of the North for their Winter Concert in December. He was an Assistant Stage Manager for UAF's 2019 production of Winter Shorts, and the 2020 Zoom production of She Kills Monsters: Virtual Realms. 7 K L V L V K L V ¿ U V W W L P H K D Y L Q J V R P X F stage manager, and he appreciates the opportunity.

August Cooper (Male Understudy) would like to thank the Seminar cast/team for giving him the opportunity to be a part of this spectacular production! He would also like to thank his family for continuing to support his acting and theatre dreams! August is a freshman majoring in Film and Performing Arts, and plans to journey into the world of drama and writing. This is August's second production, and would like to thank Tom Robenolt for this wonderful opportunity!

Charlotte Gray (Izzy) just moved to Fairbanks from Vermont, where she was actively involved in the Middlebury College theatre community. There she was in American Idiot, Sunday in the Park with George various student-run productions. She has taught theater for the American Conservatory Theater's Youth Conservatory, Bay Area Children's Theater, and Ivy Camps in Shanghai. She is thrilled to be back on stage after the pandemic, and would like to extend special gratitude to her Fairbanks

Sarah Williams (Kate) is a graduating senior this semester. She has been in previous productions such as playing Meredith in Five Women Wearing The Same Dress and Beatrix in This

Where were you born and raised?

I've been in Alaska my whole life! I was born in Juneau, spent my early childhood in Dillingham, and moved to Anchorage for secondary school.

Why did you choose to study at UAF?

UAF is close to home, but far enough away that I can feel like a real, independent adult. I'm learning to be more self-reliant and responsible for my own actions. It's a big step, but I'm taking it one day at a time.

I think I was already considering a major in Theatre when I came here, but Carrie convinced me to declare it my freshman year.

Ever since I moved to Anchorage, my mom and I were involved in community theatre. A great way to socialize—the set-in stone hours are a godsend for someone that can get so worry about coming up with the words yourself.

taking place.

I wish I had solid plans! Ideally, in the long term, I'd like to do something in the arts, maybe something related to theater or writing, or possibly something more technical.

become a novelist, but in the short term I'm not really sure. I've been thinking about decisions.
