

The Faculty and Academic Council Committee of the Faculty Senate has

The Student Academic Council has approved the following:

PROGRAMS

UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS

1. Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (BSBA)

2. Bachelor of Science in Information Systems (BSIS)

The BSBA program is a four-year program that provides students with a strong foundation in business administration. The program includes courses in accounting, finance, marketing, and management. Students are required to complete a minimum of 120 credit hours, including a capstone project.

The BSIS program is a four-year program that provides students with a strong foundation in information systems. The program includes courses in computer science, information systems, and business administration. Students are required to complete a minimum of 120 credit hours, including a capstone project.

The BSIS program is a four-year program that provides students with a strong foundation in information systems. The program includes courses in computer science, information systems, and business administration. Students are required to complete a minimum of 120 credit hours, including a capstone project.

The BSBA program is a four-year program that provides students with a strong foundation in business administration.

The BSIS program is a four-year program that provides students with a strong foundation in information systems.

